

Hugh Baird College, Merseyside

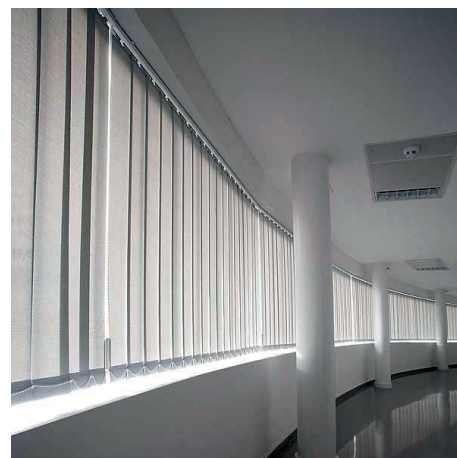

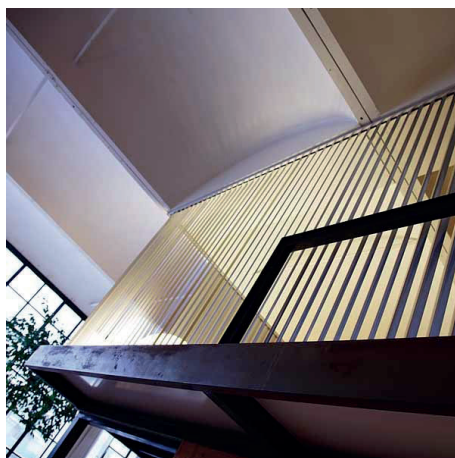

Overview

Hugh Baird College is a further education College situated in Merseyside, and one of the largest providers of education and training in the area with more than 5,000 students.

Perfect Blinds have provided solar protective maintenance to Hugh Baird College for almost 25 years.

To meet our client's ever-expanding needs, we continually supply, replace and repair ageing window blinds and advise on the new solar shading products.

There is also some sentiment as one of Directors attended this college in the 1990's and considers them to be his first "Contract Customer".
